bathroom, separate toilet and laundry bring a retro vibe that has come full circle to where it could even be said it's on trend.

The master bedroom not only has a ceiling fan but its' own split system for the perfect temperature year-round and Bedrooms 2 & 3 are ready to capture the imagination of whomever shall call it their own space next.

The living room in the original part of the home boasts large windows, letting the light flood through and the kitchen is literally the centre of this home, where the smells of the days' harvest being turned into tonight's dinner feeds the senses.
