Even the locals may not know this street. It's a quiet, no thru road, surrounded by open pastures, and what a surprise that there's even a little park with playground for the kids to enjoy. A truly special location, all tucked away yet easily accessible to go for a walk to the local hotel for dinner or bakery for lunch when desired. Welcome to the neighbourhood.

It's been 23 years since this very neat, tidy and well loved home has been on the market, special properties like these are held on to, as they effortlessly adapt to the changes. The enormous 60sqm undercover entertaining space is the ideal spot to gather amongst friends and family for any occasion all whilst keeping an eye on backyard fun and games.

All 3 bedrooms have built in robes and ceiling fans and the bathroom has a bath with a separate toilet.

The main family room has a wonderfully warm feel, ideal for those cold winter nights and what a wonderful addition of a second family room - ideal as an office/playroom, even 4th bedroom, which has french doors leading to the entertaining area outside.
