HAHNDORF
REAL ESTATE

A huge formal living / dining offers more than enough room for the most ambitious of furniture collectors, or, now the kids can have those big space demanding toys without them taking over the home. Shut the doors and it's all away.

The casual living room with Masport combustion heater is again, large and can handle any lounge setting configuration. An additional dining table could easily join this room.

This is a home that is so readily adaptable to just about every need.

Upstairs you'll find 3 bedrooms, the third living room that has vast views of treetops through the bay windows.

Storage is plentiful throughout, there's ceiling fans and dimmable lights in every bedroom and the upstairs living room, and two R/C split systems offer heating and cooling when required.

Outside, 56sqms under pitched roof ensures the option for all year outdoor dining, and the next question is, which night will become 'pizza night' every week? This oven is a beauty!

Within the fully fenced rear yard, it feels like a secret garden, crossing the timber bridge over the Iris laden Winter creek, meander around rose and bulb blossoming paths, under trees of Oak, Elm and Ash, pick some fruits of raspberries, plum, pear, nectarine, lemon, fig or mulberry, all to open up to a mini oval. Let the footy's fly and the cricket bats swing. Pets, trampolines, or simply lawn, you can make it as you wish - you have the room, which is such a privilege and hard to find these days.

A garden shed to keep the garden tools organised and an approx. 13tonne capacity timber shed, all you need now is to plant out the veggie gardens.

This is a delightful property, a truly substantial offering. Inspection is a must.
