'CHAPEL GROVE' AN EXQUISITE C1930'S HOMESTEAD

Coming home to 'Chapel Grove' shall be nothing short of pure joy.

A c1930's home that once owned many of the gently rolling acres that surrounds it, it now rests on a manageable 2541sqm parcel, still with the most glorious of outlooks.

Built in brick and stone, she's grand, holds presence and being sited in the tiny township of Chapel Hill, being a country feel, yet only 15mins from Stirling or 10mins to Mount Barker, modern conveniences are certainly not far away.

A home that was bought as a forever home, recent times have seen her be restored, repaired and rejuvenated in all of the areas that needed attention. This truly is a home that is 'walk in', where you could hang the tools up in the shed, there's nothing to do here.

Inside, the white plantation blinds filter light through the spacious rooms. The 100% woollen carpets and brand new paint on every wall complements the original solid timber floor boards. A homage to the 30's, ceiling plaster work, 10ft high, is artistry in itself, with ornate light fittings that pair
